Joseph Israel Raymond, born 1841, Sept., was the 7th of the 9 sons of Reuben M. and Lydia E. (Powers) Raymond. In 1862, Feb., he married Susannah, daughter of Russe

Richards, of Salmon River and Yarmouth, who came there from St. John to do the iron work for the large ships then building in Yarmouth and Digby Counties. He was the first blacksmith who undertook to fit and secure in position iron knees in ships on the stocks in these Counties. In the summer of 1903 I was a fellow passenger with Mrs. Raymond in the mail coach from Yarmouth to Salmon River and she gave me an interesting account of her children. She had 6 sons and 4 daughters. Two children died young. Hereld, daughter, Mrs. Savary, died in 1889; and two sons, one of whom, Russell Richards, was unmarried, died in 1900. She had had 33 grandchildren, whose names she gave me from memory as we drove along, all of whom, except 6, were living in 1903. Including her own children, the offspring of her marriage was 43 in 41 years, a remarkable record.
